

A Thames Valley Ancient Egypt Society Public Lecture

Shalfak: Re-Discovering a Middle Kingdom Fortress in Lake Nubia

Saturday October 12th 2019
1.30 for 2.00pm

By
Dr Claudia Näser

Covering the Shalfak Archaeological Mission's first two field seasons we focus on the potential location of a temple and the organisation of functional space and provisioning in the fortress, drawing on recent investigations in the granary and an architectural complex north of the fortress.

Free to members, Visitors: £4.00
Oakwood Centre, Headley Road, Woodley, RG5 4JZ
A TVAES lecture www.tvaes.org.uk

Photo courtesy of John Wall from TVAES & SARS

www.tvaes.org.uk