

A Thames Valley Ancient Egypt Society Public Lecture

Élite and Common

Old Kingdom and Ptolemaic Cemeteries to the West of the Step Pyramid Complex at Saqqara

By Dr Iwona
J. Koziaradzka-
Ogunmakin

Saturday May 12th 2018, 1.30
for 2.00pm

The Saqqara necropolis had been in use almost continuously for over three thousand years. First established for royalty and nobility, the necropolis soon became a resting place for all members of society. This lecture introduces the cemetery where the University of Warsaw team investigates burials from the Old Kingdom and Ptolemaic Period.

Free to members, Visitors: £3.00 (donation)
Oakwood Centre, Headley Road, Woodley, RG5 4JZ
A TVAES lecture www.tvaes.org.uk

www.tvaes.org.uk