Egypt's origins - the view from Mesopotamia and Iran

By Dr Paul Collins

Saturday November 11th 2016

1.30 for 2.00pm

The significance of cultural borrowings from Mesopotamia and Elam in the formation of the Egyptian state during the period 3500-2900 BC has long been debated. This talk will explore the evidence from Syria, Iraq and Iran for the emergence of cities, trade routes and associated technology and art that provides the wider context for the emergence of Egyptian kingship.
