

A Thames Valley Ancient Egypt Society Public Lecture

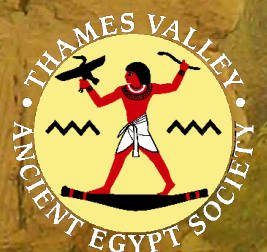

Revealing the Splendours of Ancient Egypt : David Roberts – Artist Extraordinary

By Clive Barham Carter

Saturday June 3th 2017, 1.30 for 2.00pm

The talk covers David Roberts, son of a Scottish shoemaker, became one of the most celebrated artists in Victorian England. He had an extraordinary talent, Prince Albert was an admirer. It is for his Egyptian travels that he is best known.

Free to members, Visitors: £3.00 (donation)
Oakwood Centre, Headley Road, Woodley, RG5 4JZ
A TVAES lecture www.tvaes.org.uk

www.tvaes.org.uk