

A Thames Valley Ancient Egypt Society Public Lecture

The Middle Kingdom Border with Kush: Past, Present and Future - a Zoom Lecture

Dr Christian Knoblauch

Saturday June 5th 2021, 1.45 for 2.00pm

Christian will discuss the Uronarti Regional Archaeological Project's work on the Middle Kingdom border with Kush, focusing on Senwosret III's late 12th Dynasty Mnnw fortress on the island of Uronarti. The Swansea-Brown team is changing our perception of the Egyptian presence and colonial relations in this desolate and remote border region.

Free to members, Visitors: £4.00
A TVAES online lecture www.tvaes.org.uk

www.tvaes.org.uk